Over the past several years, Longmont Clinic has utilized the Health and Wellness Magazine four times to keep the public informed about new physicians, procedures and medical advancements at the Longmont Clinic. Peter and his staff of writers and photographers have done a great job in helping us bring the latest medical news and advancements to the forefront of the community in a friendly and easy to read format.

We have always been pleased with the publication process, the attention to detail and ultimately the quality and accuracy of the final magazine. It is a true community magazine. Peter and his staff put in the time necessary to truly learn about our area and the services offered in our region. Therefore, the Health and Wellness Magazine is an accurate reflection of the community in which we serve. The publication is interesting to read and offers a complete directory of medical services and physicians for our area. This is something that no other local health magazines have been unable to do.

It is important for us to allocate our marketing dollars wisely and this has been a great, cost-effective way to reach a large portion of our community. Physicians, staff and patients alike have nothing but positive things to say about the Health and Wellness Magazine. In fact, it is one of the only publications that we stock in our waiting rooms.

Thanks Peter for a job well done!

Sincerely –

Sky Ridge Medical Center has worked with Solve Publications to publish Health & Wellness magazine for the past several years, and I have been quite pleased with the quality of work, professionalism of the team and the partnership we've developed.

As a growing hospital with new programs and state-of-the-art technology, Health & Wellness magazine is a cost effective way to inform the community about our diverse services and areas of expertise. The publication enhances our reputation as a leader in the community and provides us with a venue to share stories that can make a difference in the lives of those we serve.

We have received numerous accolades not only from readers, but from the physicians we have featured, patients who have shared their touching stories and our employees.

It has been a pleasure to work with Peter and his team of writers and designers. The process is smooth and the outcome is high quality. I highly recommend Solve Publications as a marketing tool.

Sincerely,

Today I received "Health & Wellness" for the Highlands Ranch area in my mail. At first I wasn't very interested. But the more I looked and read, the more impressed I became. The section with the physician's directory and the elder care resources ~~was~~<sup>is</sup> wonderful. I started marking pages I wanted to cut out and save but when I was through, I realized I wanted to save the entire magazine!

Just wanted to say thanks for this valuable resource. Keep up the good work.
